

Declare and Prepare

Open your heart, Open your mouth. Open My word. Miracles await those that declare My word in these days ahead. Begin to see. Begin to hear. Begin to declare. Open your mouth and I will fill it. For I am calling you out of the wilderness as I called Moses, to lead My people from bondage to a new land. Lead and they will follow, for I have given you the words of life. Raise a tent in the wilderness and I will fill it, for the wilderness is a place of intimacy and relationship to Me and I desire to speak directly to My called, just as I spoke to you. Prepare for Me a tent of habitation. I desire to speak to My chosen.
